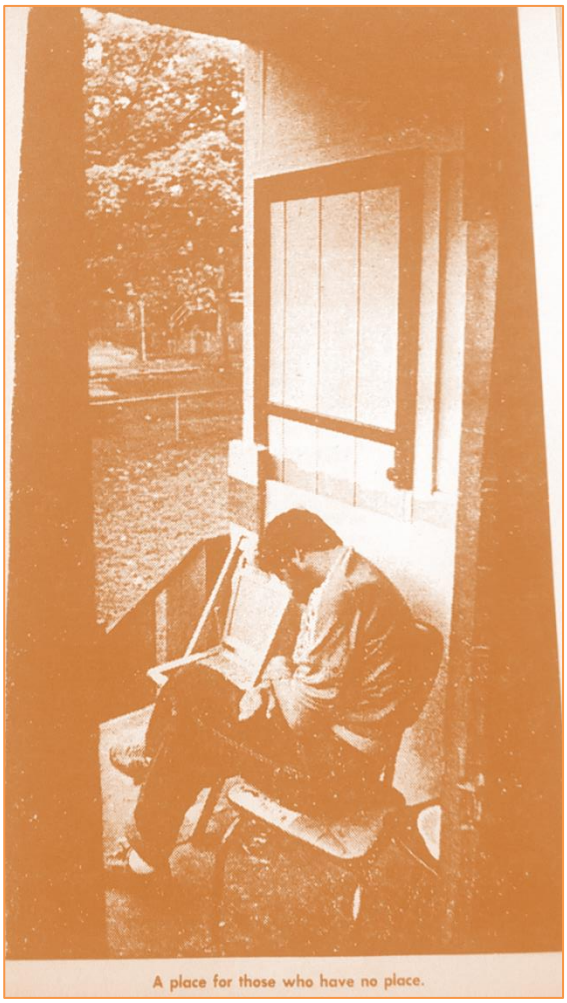
Christmas Eve Letter



A place for those who have no place.

Dear friends and supporters of the Mustard Seed Catholic Worker:

Just taking a moment to wish you a very happy and holy time in this season of joyful expectation! You have befriended us in our need and we are most grateful for your kindness to us all at 93 Piedmont Street. How blessed we have been and are with so many old and new friends!

In the coming year, we hope to grow closer to God and each other as we seek to better reflect "the Beloved Community" as Martin Luther King Jr. described the ideal! Let us together keep our eyes on the prize of love in our mutual concern to be of ever service to our beloved poor and in the shared quest for justice and peace in our troubled world.

Holy Peace, dear friends, in this season of welcome to the one who is peace,

The Mustard Seed Catholic Worker
